TIMELY TOPICS.

Some portions of Baltimore's streets are a continual menace to cyclists on account of the deep ruts in the pavement which shoot a foot apart, and from one side of the road to the other. They will throw a rider quicker than chain lightning, and not the gleam roller he runs over these bad portions of the street and jereb them! Last week a cyclist was a lady was thrown over through her wheel going in a rut. Yesterday afternoon a Ch...

It may be certain that a small number of units in the great aggregate of material things are immortal, but they did it impossible to believe in immortality, but these persons are not to be envied, because this life is so much more beautiful than the ideal without the ripening and mellowing influence which the belief in immortality imparts.

A flower may perhaps blossom in the shade and its fragrance may be lost, but it cannot be compared with the neighboring flower which draws its perfume from the sun and the well as from the soil. A perfectly wholesome soul needs the sun and the soil as much as the body and the former has much to do with the conduct of its life. Immortality must jealously protect our personality, as the soul of a great creature would be marred. It is an insignificant fact that we are to live again unless we are truly contented with our mortal as we are here, or better than here, unless we are to be larger, coarser than

A Chicago magistrate suggests that a school be opened in that city where policemen may be taught to be good grammar, so that they may express themselves more clearly on the witness stand.

Prayers the words and phrases of the English language pronounced under the letter A have increased from 1,000 in 1900 to 100,000 in 1909. Science and invention requiring new terms are largely responsible.

The registered movement does not appear to have made noteworthy inroads upon the armies of the most celebrated of the world's great leaders. Never was the word "movement" as the result of a piece of beef and other meat in New York has gone up both at wholesale and retail.
